

The Southern Democracy are not quite such fools as the Washington Union takes them to be. They have at least sense enough to know what they are about, and spirit enough to resent such arrogant nonsense as that would-be organ indulges in. They have worked in the States that gave the votes that elected Mr. Buchanan. It squats at the seat of

PROF. MORSE AND "THE CABLE."—The rendezvous for the two telegraph cable ships is to be at Corl about the 29th of July, where the cables will be joined in order to talk through the whole line to see if there is no flaw. The cable will then be cut, and the ships will proceed to sea. Mr. Morse has some apprehension that the ships will not be ready to go to sea by the time specified, and he says that, if the are not ready during the first eight days of August, he will consent to the operation this year, as he would be afraid of the storms.

August. The ships will run out about six miles an hour, and each vessel will have 900 mile to accomplish, which will require 15 days for each to arrive at its haven.

gives no further particulars, nor is he able to give the names of the officers or men."

"P. S. Since the above was written, a train of emigrants from Salt Lake has arrived. They corroborate the distressing intelligence brought by the first messenger above, but are unable to furnish us with any additional particulars. We shall look with much anxiety for the details of this horrible massacre."

Capt. Berryman is going over in the Arctic to make a new line of sounding in the Atlantic, so that the telegraphic wire will only lie for four miles from Newfoundland, instead of four hundred, as under the present arrangement. The distance to be sounded is about 600 miles.

The duties levied on a barrel of flour at Havana and at all the points in Cuba, amount to $9.85 per bushel. The duty on corn is a fraction over 40 cents

Sunday, Aug. 28, of a large sum in gold and pound notes. The amount is not stated but is poised to be from $15,000 to $20,000 in gold, a large sum in notes. The robbers got into the basement of the building, dug through the masonry and found a safe. They selected the gold and notes and left to stow on the floor of the burglar's room. No one connected with the bank visited from Saturday afternoon to Monday morning, so the robbers had ample time for arrangements, especially as they had cut the wires of the telegraph leading from the place. A reward of $2,000 is offered for the arrest of the burglars.

Dickens' "Little Dorrit" is said to have brought in $100,000.

On the track of this landlubber, the fisher-men were enabled to find the missing suffrute at 400 miles from the mouth of the river, in the Dismal Swamp. Next week Col. Crockett signs putting on more force. He will then be three parties at work, and the laying of the will progress rapidly.

"The funeral baked meats Did edify furnished forth the marriage table." The Monongahela Republican, contains the following item of news:

On the 23rd ult., in Brownsville, by the Rev. Palmer, Mr. Thomas Wilkinson and Miss Mary Smith. Last week we published the notice of the death of Mr. Wilkinson, which occurred on the 15th inst. following an illness of fifteen days between the death of wife, and his recent marriage.
